at 0400 on Tuesday 02 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain clearing Tuesday morning, then brighter, showers later.

Today:
A wet and windy start on Tuesday. The rain will clear northeast by midday, with a drier and brighter interlude following, and the chance of a few showers, these becoming heavier by late evening. Milder. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Heavy showers continuing into the evening, before gradually clearing away east. Most places then turning drier with some clearer spells developing, and winds decreasing. Perhaps a few mist patches forming. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Wednesday:
Most places dry although probably rather cloudy. A spell of rain is likely across southernmost counties for a time. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Thursday and Friday, some bright spells but also some showers, perhaps heavy at times. Saturday, further spells of rain likely, perhaps turning wintry later as colder east winds develop.
